

Contradictions in UNAIDS Reports: Comparison of Expected Outcomes for 2010
According to Country-defined Targets and Universal Access Estimates (million)

	Country-defined targets for 2010	Targets oriented at UA in 2010	Comparison (in %)
People on antiretroviral treatment	6,7	13,7	48,9%
Primary school teachers trained	1,0	1,5	66,7%
Sex workers reached	7,5	13,0	57,7%
Voluntary counselling and testing	40,9	60,0	68,2%
Condoms provided	8.153,7	10.000,0	81,5%
Workers reached in the workplace	46,2	90,0	51,3%
Units of safe blood produced	42,6	45,0	94,7%
Pregnant women offered comprehensive prevention of mother-to-child transmission services	74,5	80,0	93,1%
Injecting drug users reached with harm-reduction programmes	9,6	6,2	154,8%
Men who have sex with men reached	20,4	19,0	107,4%
Prisoners reached	6,2	6,2	100,0%
Safe injections provided	4.247,1	5.400,0	78,7%
Male circumcisions performed	1,5	2,5	60,0%
Orphans supported	6,7	19,0	35,3%
People receiving treatment for opportunistic infections and palliative care	2,1	1,8	116,7%

Sources: UNAIDS: What countries need. Investments needed for 2010 targets, February 2009; UNAIDS: Financial Resources Required to Achieve Universal Access to HIV Prevention, Treatment, Care and Support, September 2007

Joachim R ppel, Medical Mission Institute W rzburg